Introduction

The Business Schools graduate certificates are primarily intended to give individuals with an undergraduate degree in any discipline access to business courses that can help them succeed in their current job or even help them launch their own company.

Students can pursue one of our graduate certificates, even if they are not CU Denver students, without taking the GMAT. Credit earned as a part of the certificate does count towards your graduate business degree, should you choose to pursue a degree here. Listed below is information on one such certificate.

The Managing for Sustainability Certificate is designed for business professionals seeking a deeper understanding of sustainability and/or the technical knowledge to lead sustainability initiatives in their companies. To earn a Managing for Sustainability Certificate, students complete four semester-long graduate Business School courses. Two of the courses provide a foundation in sustainable business practices then, students select their remaining two certificate classes covering such specialized areas as finance, marketing, accounting, and social entrepreneurship.
