Overview
The English Studies graduate program provides a strong foundation in primary knowledge areas, including the major genres and the theory of genre, approaches to literacy, English language study, and the impact of technology on reading and writing. The program invites MA candidates to build on this foundation by developing an expertise in teaching, and by expanding their content knowledge with courses in rhetoric, literature, film, and applied linguistics.

Additional Information
For additional information on majors, options, minors and certificates call the Department of English office at 303-315-7830.

The English department also offers a graduate certificate in teaching English to speakers of other languages.

English, MA
Requirements for Admission
The English department has rolling admission. For each term, students may apply at any time, but priority will be given to applications submitted by:

- May 1—for Summer admission
- July 1—for Fall admission
- December 1—for Spring admission

Complete applications must include the following:

- A completed University of Colorado Denver graduate application.
- One copy of all graduate and undergraduate transcripts, and for any non-degree courses previously taken.
- Three letters of recommendation, in which the recommender specifically addresses the candidate’s ability to pursue successfully the program chosen (forms for recommendation letters are available with the online application).
- Evidence of a 3.0 GPA in previous courses.
- A two- to three-page statement of purpose (in which the applicant carefully describes reasons and motivation for pursuing the program chosen, as well as career aspirations upon completing the degree).
- CV/Resume.
- A critical writing sample of approximately 10 pages in length.
- The Graduate Record Exam (GRE) is optional. Applicants may provide GRE scores if they wish, but results are no longer required.

In addition to these requirements, applicants for the program must have successfully completed 24 semester hours in English courses (graduate or undergraduate), excluding courses in composition, creative writing or speech. At least 15 of these semester hours must be at the upper-division level.

Transfer of Credits from Other CU Campuses
Students admitted to graduate study in English may complete all of their course requirements for the MA degree at CU Denver. Up to 9 semester hours (total) may be transferred from the University of Colorado Boulder, University of Colorado Colorado Springs or other graduate programs; however, such transfer requires the written approval of the director of graduate studies. Only 9 semester hours of courses taken at CU Denver before acceptance into the program can be counted toward the degree. Further, work already applied toward a graduate degree received at the University of Colorado Denver or at another institution cannot be transferred toward another graduate degree of the same level at CU Denver. (For other rules concerning transfer of graduate credits, see the Graduate Education Policies and Procedures.) For more information, contact the director of graduate studies.
